Notice to data subjects on the processing of personal data (art. 13 GDPR 2016/679)

This notice on the use of cookies on the website allevamentolatorretta.com is given to the user to comply with the General Security Measure of the Italian Data Protection Authority of 8 May 2014 "Simplified Arrangements to Provide Information and Obtain Consent Regarding Cookies"; reference is made to the document Policy Privacy published on this website, equally drawn up in compliance with art. 13 of EU Regulation 2016/679, to appoint Data Controller, Data Protection Officer, methods and purposes of processing, transfer of data and rights of the data subjects.

WHAT ARE COOKIES?

Cookies are small text files that the website may send, during navigation, to the device concerned, be it a computer, notebook, smartphone, tablet, etc.; cookies are normally stored directly on the browser used to navigate. The same website that sent them can then read and register the cookies that are found on the same device to obtain information of various type.

Cookies are used for different purposes: performance of IT authentication, monitoring of sessions, storage of information on specific configurations regarding the users accessing the server, etc. Additional information on cookies is available on www.allaboutcookies.org.

WHY DO WE USE COOKIES?

This internet site may use cookies for different reasons. In some parts of our site, cookies are essential and without them some of our services cannot be requested.

We are constantly seeking new ways to improve our website and to make the knowledge of our services easier.

Therefore it is important for us to understand how our website is used.

HOW MANY TYPES OF COOKIES ARE THERE?

There are two fundamental macro categories with different characteristics: technical cookies and third parties' cookies. Technical cookies are generally necessary for the proper functioning of the website and to enable browsing; without them it may happen that some pages are not displayed correctly or some services are not available. For example, a technical cookie is indispensable to keep the user connected during the entire visit of a website or to store the settings of language, visualization and so on.

Technical cookies can be further subdivided into:

- navigation or session cookies that ensure standard navigation and use of the website;
- feature cookies that allow the users to navigate according to a series of selected criteria (e.g. language, the products selected for buying) with the aim of improving the service provided to users;
- analytical cookies, comparable to technical cookies and used directly by the website manager to gather aggregated information about the number of users and how they visit the website.

Technical cookies may also be provided by third parties (referred to as "third-party cookies") and may correspond to all the types given above, they may be managed in aggregated and anonymous form or in a form enabling the identification of website visitors, including if occasional.

Finally, there are also profiling cookies that have the purpose of profiling users and are used to send advertising messages in line with the preferences shown by the same during browsing.

WHAT COOKIES DOES THIS WEBSITE USE?

THIRD-PARTY COOKIES

This website uses third-party cookies from "Google Analytics", a statistical analysis service provided and managed by Google that allows to analyse how users visit the website in an anonymous way. The information generated by cookies about users' use of the website (including their IP address) is transmitted and stored in Google's servers.
